Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 13, 2024

Dear Parishioners,

A question on which each of us has thought some time in our lives, is the question the young man asked of Jesus in our gospel today. The young man runs up to Jesus and asks, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” We might think that to be an odd question, but as people who always are confronted with the reality of death, it is an important question to ask. The lives that we live here are very fragile, and we never know their expiration date. And so in light of those limitations, we too would like to know what we can do to secure that eternal life. Jesus tells the young man that the beginning steps is to keep the commandments of God. The young man responded that he has kept them from his youth. Then Jesus who saw his goodness and loved him, challenged him to “go, sell what you have, give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and then come, follow me.” This challenge was just too much for this young man. The words of the gospel say so much as it states: “at that statement, his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.” Perhaps this story might challenge us to look into our own lives and to see what dominates those lives. Are the things that dominate things of this earth? If so, we might be like that young man who went away from Jesus rather sad because these things control us and set our priorities. The only thing about these things are that they are not lasting. Our faith, our hope, and our love of Jesus are the things that should dominate our lives and control what we do. May each of us check our priorities and set them right with Jesus.

This weekend our vocation committee of our parish have designated this weekend to thank our deacons who serve our parish. And so, to Deacon Bob Lundberg, and to Deacon Jeff Wolf, our prayers are with you and for you as we pray for you this weekend. May God continue to bless your service.

I want to remind you that this Sunday night, October 13th, we will be honoring Our Lady of the Rosary with a special prayer service. We will gather at 6:30 p.m. in the Church and then process around our Church grounds while we pray the rosary. The evening service will conclude with Benediction. Please join us as we honor Our Lady of the Rosary.

Another comforting ministry that we offer here at St. Peter’s for those who have suffered the loss of a loved one is a four week class entitled “A time to Mourn.....A time to Heal.” These classes will be on October 16, 23, 30, and November 6th, at 4:30 p.m. in the parish office. The death of a loved one often pushes us into grief and healing from grief takes time and a willingness to share. If interested, please call the parish office 217-222-3155.

Once again if you have not participated in our Upon this Rock capital campaign I am asking for you to consider doing so. The success of this campaign is so often reflected in the number of parishioners who participate in it. We hope to be breaking ground for this project after school lets out next Spring. But we do need more support and so I am asking you to make your pledge and be a part of our parish community. For those unable to give, I am asking your support through your prayers. To all, I thank you for being a part of this dynamic parish.

October, 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 On October 20, as we observe World Mission Sunday, we stand in solidarity with the Missions of the Church, to proclaim the salvation of Christ to all nations. Pope Francis reflected on this year's theme: "Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet" Matthew 22:9. The invitation to the banquet is linked to the Eucharistic table, where believers share the Body and Blood of Christ, anticipating the final Banquet. Participating in World Mission Sunday is a tangible way for Catholics to live out the Great Commission, bringing the message of Christ to every corner of the earth. It's an expression of solidarity with missionaries and a means to share Christ's love universally.

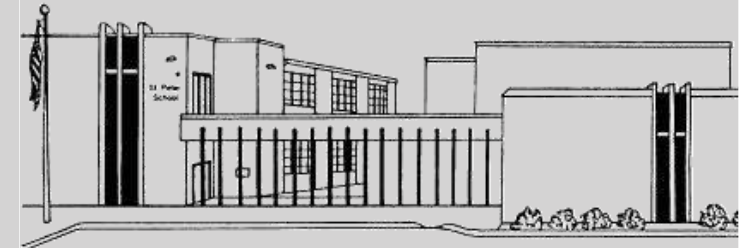

Founded by French laywoman Blessed Pauline Jaricot in 1822, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is an essential source of aid for the Church's missionary work. In the United States, we benefited from these donations: up until 1908, we received close to 7 million dollars, the equivalent of over 250 million today. Those dioceses in our country, considered mission territories, continued to receive subsidies. Fairbanks, Alaska, was the last of those dioceses and received its final subsidy payment just last year!

The World Mission Sunday collection assists the Holy Father to meet his Petrine obligation to build up the Church in over 1,100 dioceses and territories that are too young and/or too poor to sustain themselves. Offerings support the formation of seminarians and religious men and women, assist in the construction of schools and orphanages, and enables missionaries to build churches in remote and resource-limited areas, and to meet essential works to proclaim the Gospel and celebrate the Sacraments.

Embodying this year's theme of World Mission Sunday, I urge you to keep your hearts aflame with the word of God, open the eyes of others to Jesus in the Eucharist, and your feet moving inviting everyone to walk together on the path of peace and salvation. Your prayers are invaluable, and your financial support provides life-giving aid to our brothers and sisters in the world's most vulnerable communities.

Gratefully in the Lord,

 Most Reverend Thomas John Paprocki
 Bishop of Springfield in Illinois

A Message from Mrs. Cindy Venvertloh
 "St. Peter School provides a quality education built on Catholic values and teachings."

CONGRATULATIONS TO MRS. SOWELL

Mrs. Cheryl Sowell, 1st grade teacher at St. Peter, received $150 to put towards her religion curriculum. The Optimist Club of Quincy offers an opportunity to the Catholic elementary school educators to request funds for an innovative classroom activity. Each month an educator is selected and the Optimist Club generously helps support a project. Mrs. Sowell will be using the funds to purchase material to make costumes and provide props for students to be able to act out/bring Bible stories to life. This hands on learning will support the religion curriculum.

Fr. Leo's column continued..
This next week, Quincy Notre Dame will be celebrating their Homecoming Week. This week of special happenings will include a parade on Thursday, with a football game on Friday, and then the Homecoming Dance on Saturday. As is our custom, those attending the homecoming dance will be present at our Eucharist next Saturday, October 19th, at 5:00 p.m. We are very happy to have our young people along with their parents at our Saturday night Mass.

Also, Fr. Delix Michel, pastor of our sister parishes in Haiti, will be with us on the weekend of October 26-27th. As always, we are very happy to have him with us as he will touch base with us as to how our brothers and sisters in Haiti are doing.

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE: A gentleman goes to an estate sale and notices that one of the items for sale is a large parrot. He always wanted a talking bird, so when it comes up for a bid he offers $50.
The bidding proceeds hot and heavy with someone always bidding ten dollars more than he until the parrot is finally sold to him for $1500.
When he goes to get the bird, he asks the auctioneer, "Can the bird talk?"
The auctioneer replied, "Who do you think was bidding against you?"
"Don't ruin a good day today by thinking about a bad yesterday. Let it go."
Sign outside a Church: "Need a lifeguard? Ours walks on water."
